FLYING THE RED FLAG

EMBLEM OF REVOLT WAVES OVER
THE RUSSIAN BATTLESHIP
KNIAZ POTEMKINE.

IN HANDS OF MUTINEERS

CZAR'S MOST POWERFUL WAR-
SHIP IN BLACK SEA TURNS
AGAINST GOVERNMENT.

ENCOURAGES THE STRIKERS

THOSE AT ODESSA TAKE COUR-AGE AS RESULT OF MUTINY
ON THE WAR VESSEL.

Odessa, June 29.—The red flag of revolution is hoisted at the masthead of the Kniaz Potemkine, Russia's most powerful battleship in the Black sea, which now lies in the harbor in the hands of the mutineers.

The captain and most of the officers were murdered and thrown overboard in the open sea and the ship is completely in the possession of the crew and a few officers who have thrown in their lot with the mutineers.

The guns of the Kniaz Potemkine are trained on the city and in the streets masses of striking workmen who Tuesday fled before the volleys of the troops are now inflamed by the spectacle of open revolt on board an imperial warship, and are making a bold front against the military.

All day long firing has been heard in many quarters of the city. A number of barricades have been erected and tumult and disorder reign.

The main squadron of the Black sea fleet, consisting of the battleships George Pobedionosetz (George the Victorious), Tri Sviatella, Rostislav and Ekaterina II., with two cruisers, are expected to arrive here soon and a regular naval battle is in prospect.

The rioters are in a most defiant mood and are not inclined to surrender without fighting.

Reports of the mutiny, which occurred while the battleship was at sea, are difficult to obtain, as the mutineers refuse to allow communication with the shore; but it is ascertained that it arose from the shooting of a sailor who was presenting on behalf of the crew a complaint against bad food.

Objected to Quality of Soup.

According to one version, this sailor, whose name was Omilchuk, objected to the quality of the "borchtch" or soup, and was immediately shot down by a mess officer. The crew then rose and seized the ship and the officers, eight of whom were spared on condition that they would join the mutineers. The others were killed and their bodies thrown overboard.

After a period of vacillation the Kniaz Potemkine headed for Odessa and arrived here Tuesday night, accompanied by two torpedo boats.

Early Wednesday the body of Omilchuk was brought ashore in one of the battleship's boats and was landed on the new mole, where it had been exposed in semi-state all day. It was visited by thousands of persons, many of whom placed coins in a basket at the head of the body toward a fund to defray the cost of the funeral, which the sailors propose to hold during the day and which the strikers will make the occasion for a great demonstration.

An inscription on the breast of the dead sailor states on behalf of the crew that Omilchuk died for the truth because he presented a just complaint of the crew.

The authorities have made no attempt to remove the body, the sailors having served notice that the ship would open fire on anyone seeking to interfere with it. A police agent visiting the spot was killed by strikers.

During the day a red flag was hoisted on the Kniaz Potemkine and members of the crew rode from ship to ship in the harbor forcing the stoppage of all work thereon. Food was supplied them by sympathizers on shore who pilaged the maritime storehouse.

The strike is now general in the city and the rioters are growing in numbers and boldness. There were exchanges of shots all day but the number of victims cannot be stated. In the evening a bomb was thrown in Cathedral palace, killing its thrower and a policeman.

General Strike on Railroads.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—It is reported that a general strike on the Russian railways will be declared July 2 as a protest against the mobilization of troops.

MOST SERIOUS OF ALL

MUTINY ON RUSSIAN WARSHIP IS THE GRAVEST CRISIS BE-FORE THE COUNTRY.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—More serious in its possible effects than all the defeats in Manchuria or the destruction of Rojestvensky's fleet, was the news which reached St. Petersburg early Wednesday evening that the standard of open rebellion was floating on board one of the emperor's battleships in the harbor of Odessa and that with shotted guns the mutinous crew, headed by eight officers, was holding the ship against all comers.

The authorities are in almost a state of panic and at the admiralty consternation reigns. Admiral Wrenius, chief of the general staff of the navy, said that the admiralty had received advices regarding the mutiny but he was unable to give details. He frankly confessed that the situation was grave and that he did not know what to expect.

The Black sea squadron, which left Sebastopol Tuesday under command of Vice Admiral Kruger, was due to arrive at Odessa Wednesday night and a battle with the mutineers may occur at any moment.

The Kniaz Potemkine is a more powerful ship than any in Kruger's squadron and the gravity of the situation is increased by the fact that the city is practically in the possession of the strikers, who, according to the dispatches, had already been encouraged to open resistance by the mutiny of the sailors and were erecting barricades and fighting the police and the troops in the streets. The body of Omilchuk, lying exposed on the quay in view of thousands, and the story of his cruel death evidently fired the imaginations of the workmen, who in Odessa are particularly turbulent, especially the dock and wharf men.

Should the sailors of Kruger's ships join the mutineers the government would have to face open revolution, which would spread like wildfire to other towns in the Black sea littoral. The workmen of all these towns, from which sailors are largely recruited, are imbued with the socialistic and revolutionary propaganda. At Sebastopol less than a month ago disorders were suppressed with difficulty.

Ugly Rumors Long Current.

Ever since the war started ugly reports about the crews of the Black sea fleet have been current. Men have been shot and even officers court-martialed for disobedience, and Wednesday at Sebastopol twelve sailors were condemned to three years' imprisonment for mutiny.

No better evidence of the spirit of the crews is needed than an official announcement made by the admiralty Wednesday that Admiral Nebogoff and the other officers who surrendered in the Sea of Japan would have to stand trial by court-martial upon their return. Practically all of the crews of the vessels which surrendered came from the Black sea.

The fact that Odessa is not a fortified port explains why the Kniaz Potemkine is able to lie in the harbor unmolested.

The news of the mutiny coming just at this time when Poland is in a state of ferment, when agrarian disorders are coming to a head and when the government is attempting mobilization involving about 200,000 men may easily precipitate a crisis, and the authorities are endeavoring to keep it from the public by suppressing dispatches. Nevertheless the Liberals and agitators have many ways of spreading the tidings through underground channels and in St. Petersburg the news was known in all the cafes at midnight.

The radicals had the event as the dawn of an actual armed revolution.

"The moment for which we have waited has come," said one when he heard the news. "Omilchuk's name will go down in history as that of a martyr who precipitated a Russian revolution."

News has been received of disorders resulting from the mobilization in the government of Poltava, some reservists refusing to appear and others starting riots. The authorities at Poltava are unwilling to dispatch troops as the entire force available is needed in that government.

HONORED GUEST AT HARVARD.

President Roosevelt Receives Cordial Greeting From His Classmates.

Cambridge, Mass., June 29.—Although nominally celebrating with his classmates the twenty-fifth anniversary of the graduation of the class of '80 from Harvard university, President Roosevelt was Wednesday the honored guest of America's most ancient seat of learning. No degrees of honor were conferred on him, as he already holds the highest degree the university is empowered to bestow, but the welcome accorded him by Cambridge citizens, alumni and college officials was most cordial.

The president entered heartily into the spirit of commencement day and played a leading part in all the functions incident to the occasion.

It was scarcely 9 a. m. when the lieutenant governor, representing the commonwealth of Massachusetts, called at the residence of Bishop William Lawrence, where the president spent the night, to escort him to Harvard yard where the academic procession was to form for the march to Saunders' theater, the scene of the commencement exercises. The number receiving degrees from Harvard aggregated 990 and included seven honorary degrees.

Following the commencement exercises the president made three public addresses, one at the Harvard union, a second, and the principal one of his tour, at the annual alumni dinner in Memorial hall, and a third from the steps of Memorial hall to the members of the alumni who could not gain admittance to the Memorial hall exercises. The speech in Memorial hall, which was a general discussion of the mission of the college, evoked the greatest enthusiasm.

Besides the more pretentious events, the president's programme included a brief visit to the Germanic museum, where he sent a cable to the German emperor thanking him for his gifts to Harvard; an informal reception at the home of President Eliot of Harvard; luncheons at the Porcelain club and at the chief marshal's headquarters in University hall; tea at the residence of President Albert B. Hart, and a dinner at the Somerset club.

MILLION DOLLAR GIFT

CONDITIONALLY MADE TO YALE
COLLEGE BY THE STANDARD OIL MAGNATE.

New Haven, Conn., June 29.—President Hadley announced at the alumni dinner Wednesday evening that a gift of $1,000,000 had recently been made by John D. Rockefeller and that another million had been subscribed by graduates in sums varying from $50,000 to $250,000. The names of the latter donors were not made public.

President Hadley said that the "only condition of any kind underlying Mr. Rockefeller's gift is that the money is to be invested in income-producing securities and preserved inviolate as endowment for the institution, the annual income only to be used for current expenses." He added that the two millions already subscribed were to be considered merely the beginning of an endowment fund, which might at least be doubled in the next year if Yale is to maintain her position in the university world.

The gift is the largest single donation ever made to the university.

BUILDINGS NOW IN FLAMES.

Incendiaries at Work Around Harbor of Odessa.

London, June 29.—A dispatch from Odessa to a news agency dated Wednesday night, says:

"The whole of the quays and the buildings around the harbor as well as much shipping are in flames. Mobs of incendiaries by armed force prevented the fire brigades working. The troops are completely terrorized and are afraid to approach within range of the Kniaz Potemkine's guns, which threaten a disastrous bombardment. The city is appallingly illuminated by burning buildings and terror prevails everywhere. Sleep is impossible and everybody is watching and waiting. The whole garrison has been requisitioned for patrol duty. It is thought that it may become necessary to summon foreign warships for the protection of the foreign colonies."

Tuesday night's collisions between the mob and police and military resulted in the loss of 17 lives, including 3 policemen.

The crew on the Kniaz Potemkine fired a shell at a Cossack patrol, killing 3 and wounding 20.

American Circus Men Arrested.

Grand Mere, Que., June 27.—Fifteen employees of an American circus were arrested during the day by militia from Quebec charged with kidnapping and ill-using a young French Canadian girl at Roberval and shooting another girl at Chamborg.

"Rich men who evade the laws are a menace to the community" said President Roosevelt in an address Wednesday, "and people should frown on and discountenance these men." The president so contently is saying and doing those things that meets with the approval of the common people, that he will have the fight of his life to avoid a renomination and re-election.

The crew of a Russian battle ship Tuesday mutinied and killed all the officers and threw them overboard. With such a state of affairs in the personnel of their battleships how could Russia hope to win against the Japanese where every sailor is a patriot willing and anxious to sacrifice himself for his country. It is the men, more than anything else, that decides the fate of a naval battle.

Peace prospects throughout the world are not very bright with Russia and Japan still fighting, Sweden and Norway preparing to fight, Germany and France growling at each other over the Moroccan question to say nothing of the eternal revolutions in Venezuela and other South American states. These things make one doubt sometime whether the world has advanced in intelligence or not.

EDITOR EASTMAN, of the St. Cloud Journal Press and Charley Mitchell, of the Fairmont News, are now busy abusing each other because of their lack of support of party nominees at different times, and as a result are saying many disagreeable things that should be left unsaid. An incident showing the superiority of newspaper advertising over other methods occurred in THE DISPATCH office recently. Many of our business men took space in an advertising score book for the league ball games. The entire edition for the summer was printed and paid for in good faith, but the sale of the the club to Superior renders the book and the advertising useless. Had the money been spent by the merchants in space in a local paper every copy would have gone into the hands of someone. It is so in a measure with nearly all kinds of circular and dodger advertising. A large per cent never reaches the public.

Off Few Days Ago

Phillip Nash, a laborer about 50 years of age, was killed by a Minnesota & International passenger train a short distance the other side of Walker Tuesday.

The man had been at work in the Cedar camp at La Porte and was discharged a few days ago. He went to Walker and spent his coin for the stuff that makes things go round. He wandered up the track and finding a nice soft spot beside the rails laid down and went to sleep. His head was within a few inches of one of the rails. The passenger train came along and the man escaped injury until half the train passed when he woke up and raised his head. One of the trucks on the baggage car struck him in the head and he rolled over the embankment dead.

The man has relatives living in Canada and they have been informed of the death.

Dying of Famine
is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me."
Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed

BIG MENAGERIE

Norris & Rowe's Big Zoological Exhibit
Will Interest All Who Will Attend
the Circus Here

A few more years and there will be but few living specimens of rare wild animals to be seen anywhere in captivity.
Every year witnesses their decline towards extinction. Their scarcity is already a matter of grave concern to natural historians. Man in his progress is driving them from their natural elements in forests and jungles and on pampas, steppes and plains. It is only in such institutions as the menag-eries of the great circuses of the country that a very great majority of these strange and curious creatures may be seen. Norris and Rowe are rapidly collecting the largest and most complete collection of animals in this country, and their menageries are constantly being augmented by the addition of new specimens of animals that are captured in the jungles and fastnesses of all the world and sent to them by their permanent agents abroad. Some seasons ago, realizing that wild animals would become more and more valuable and appreciating the worth of a goodly collection, they gave their foreign agents the strictest instructions to purchase on sight every rare and wild beast obtainable. That the agents carried out their orders implicitly is best evidenced by the large number of animals sent over,
in fact the number grew to such proportions that the young circus owners were compelled to order larger tents and join the two menageries into one huge double affair that will take the auditor more than an hour in witnessing even casually. The Norris and Rowe greater circus will exhibit at Brainerd, July 7.

DINNER TO WHITE-LAW REID.

American Ambassador Honored by Prominent Britons.

London, June 24.—Whitelaw Reid, the American ambassador, who has been officially received by King Edward and the members of the cabinet and entertained socially by royalty
and the leaders of English society, made his first public appearance as ambassador Friday night at a dinner given in his honor by the Pilgrim society of London. The gathering included many of England's most famous men, with a sprinkling of American residents of London, all of whom gave the heartiest welcome to the American representative.

Field Marshal Lord Roberts presided. He proposed a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, and his reference to President Roosevelt's effort to end the far Eastern war was received with cheers.

Premier Balfour proposed the toast
to the guest of the evening.

Ambassador Reid, who was personally known to most of those present, received an enthusiastic reception on rising to reply. He delivered quite a long address, the burden of which was the friendship between the United States and England.

Sir Henry Irving read a poem written for the occasion by Alfred Austin, the poet laureate.

Field Marshal Sir George White,
governor of Gibraltar, proposed the toast of "The Pilgrims." General Stewart L. Woodford replied for the American Pilgrims, and Dr. Conan
Doyle for the British Pilgrims.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

SALE FOR VAUDEVILLE TO OPEN.

There is more interest this week than any previous week since that popular form of entertainment—vaudeville—was introduced at the Brainerd opera house, and it is thought that there will be a big demand for seats when they are placed on sale tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s for the Saturday matinee and evening performances. There is naturally the interest in knowing that there is an entire change
of the bill each week, with new people, but there is the added interest in being assured from week to week that Manager Walker in introducing this new feature into Brainerd theatrical life is bringing together a class of artists who stand high in the profession. Everyone will be interested in this week's bill.

The Lakolas, otherwise known as the American Japs, will surely attract much attention in their new and novel act,
"A Night in Japan." Franco Blondin, the marvelous wire performer will create much wonderment and merriment
in his act "The Scrubwoman." Mr.
Frank Clayton, eccentric, musical and monologue comedian will entertain as will Hayter and Janet, the comedy duo,
in singing, dancing and funny sayings.
Mr. and Mrs. Kingston will present their amusing sketch entitled, "Matrimonial Squabbles." The bill will open and close with motion pictures not yet seen here by the wonderful Edison Kinetos-cope.

Same popular prices 15c, 25 and 35c.
Matinee prices 10 and 25c.

MR. WM. OWEN.

Manager Walker announces as a special attraction at the Brainerd opera house on July 6, Mr. William Owen, supported by J. W. McConnell, Miss Camilla Reynolds and a capable company of players in a grand revival of "Othello." Mr. Owen who is a prime favorite with our theatre goers is sure to receive a hearty welcome.

way will sell tickets during the summer

MOTHER FATALLY SHOT DAUGHTER

Distressing Accident Occurred at St. Cloud at an Early Hour
This Morning

DIDN'T KNOW GUN WAS LOADED

Mrs. Christ Dobmeir Playfully
Pointed Revolver at Little Daughter's Breast

Word comes from St. Cloud that there was a most distressing accident this morning in which a mother while playfully pointing a revolver at her little six-year daughter's breast shot her fatally.

Christ Dobmeir is a saloonkeeper and when he went home last night he laid his revolver on the table. This morning Mrs. Dobmeir picked the revolver up and in fun pointed it at the little girl. It was loaded and she accidentally pulled the trigger. The bullet entered the little girl's breast and it is not thought possible that she can live.

AGREEMENT AT HAND

GERMANY AND FRANCE LIKELY TO SETTLE TROUBLE WITHOUT RECOURSE TO ARMS.

CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD

AT WHICH TROUBLESOME SITUATION IN MOROCCO WILL BE FULLY DISCUSSED.

Paris, June 29.—The Franco-German complications have been so far overcome that a complete agreement is considered only a matter of time.

The improvement in the situation was further manifested in official and diplomatic quarters during the day and the bourse again showed a marked advance in rentes and a general firmness throughout. The nervous public sentiment has entirely disappeared and there is no further talk of the possibility of a rupture with Germany.

The officials say that the negotiations now are largely a question of formalities and the framing of an understanding within the limits of the two notes and the attendant conversations already exchanged. Therefore it is not likely that France will send another note, as her position was fully defined in the first communication, to which Germany has fully replied. The tone of these notes clearly indicates that the final understanding will be on the basis of holding a conference. While Germany has not been disposed to define the limits of the proposed conference, yet verbal exchanges have entirely removed the apprehensions which officials previously entertained concerning ulterior designs behind the conference. Thus the sharp diplomatic controversy has had the effect of producing a much better general state of feeling between France and Germany as the preceding relations had been more or less a matter of suspicion on both sides for the past two years.

DEMOCRATS OF OHIO.

Nominate John M. Pattison as Their Candidate for Governor.

Columbus, O., June 29.—After a continuous session of six hours, the Ohio Democratic convention named the following state ticket, to be voted on at the state election in November: For governor—John M. Pattison, Clermont county.

Lieutenant governor—Louis B. Houck, Knox county.
Supreme judge—Hugh T. Mathers, Shelby county.
Attorney general—James A. Rice, Stark county.
State treasurer—Charles F. Mason, Butler county.

Member of the board of public works —Patrick C. McGovern, Muskingum county.

In the way of demonstrations, the greatest came at the close of Chairman Daugherty's speech, when an impromptu tribute to William J. Bryan as the party leader in the nation brought out a storm of cheers that lasted fully a minute, and it was repeated later in the convention when other speakers referred to Bryan.

NORWEGIAN THRONE VACANT.

Course of King Oscar Makes No Change in the Situation.

Christiania, June 29.—The best political authorities believe that King Oscar's refusal to nominate a prince of the house of Bernadotte for the Norwegian throne makes no change in Norway's constitutional situation.

According to the constitution of May 17, 1814, which is still in force, and to the formal resolution of the storting passed on June 7, last, Norway is even now a kingdom with its throne vacant, and hence King Oscar's declaration has not decided the question as to whether the future government of Norway will be under a republic or a monarch. It is pointed out that if King Oscar persists in his refusal to nominate a member of his house to the throne, Norway is free to offer the crown to another prince.

WOMAN ENDS HER LIFE.

Swallows a Drug and Leaps into the River at Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, June 29.—While her husband lay at the point of death in St. Mary's hospital here, and convinced that there was no hope that he would survive the surgical operation he had undergone, Mrs. Grace Adams swallowed a drug and leaped from the railing of the steel arch bridge across the Mississippi river here shortly before 6 o'clock p. m. The body of the woman was swept away and it has not been found.

Mrs. Adams had been married about three months.

Man and Woman Killed.

Cashier of Iowa Bank Missing.

Graettinger, Ia., June 29.—William Mueller, cashier of the Graettinger Savings bank, left here about a week ago and his whereabouts is unknown. Sheriff Conkley has secured an order to have the bank's safe opened.

ARRAIGNS SENATOR MITCHELL.

District Attorney Heney Merciless in His Condemnation.

Portland, Ore., June 29.—The case of United States Senator Mitchell will not go to the jury before Thursday night and probably not until Friday. Wednesday was consumed by District Attorney Heney in finishing his argument for the prosecution, and when he completed it court adjourned for the day. Judge Bennett will commence to speak in behalf of Senator Mitchell in the morning and will be followed by Ex-Senator Thurston. Mr. Heney will then make his final argument. If time remains Judge de Haven will give his charge.

Mr. Heney in his argument to the jury traced the transactions of the firm in relation to land matters from the time the senator asked for a copy of the firm's books covering the period from November, 1901, until June, 1902. His arraignment of the defendant, who he said had been the cause of the perjury of Judge Tanner and his son, and whom he charged with an attempt to suborn his private secretary, Harry Robertson, to testify in accordance with the false defense outlined, was merciless and caused the face of the defendant to flame and pale with passion.

DAVID B. HENDERSON ILL.

Suffering From a Slight Stroke of Paralysis.

Dubuque, Ia., June 29.—D. B. Henderson, formerly speaker of the national house of representatives, is confined to hotel apartments, suffering from a slight stroke of paralysis. His right side is affected. While he is improving, it is said that his condition is serious. Hopes are entertained, however, that he will be able to leave his apartments in a few days. A report that Mr. Henderson had suffered a second stroke is denied by relatives.

Kuropatkin Not Killed.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—The general staff announces that it has absolutely nothing to support the reports that General Kuropatkin has been killed or has committed suicide and a portion of the Russian army is surrounded. On the contrary the staff reports that the Russians have achieved a considerable victory.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 29.—Cornell regained her prestige in intercollegiate rowing affairs Wednesday by winning with the utmost ease the 'varsity eight-oar and freshman eight-oar races in the intercollegiate regatta. Syracuse was given the decision in the 'varsity four-oar race, after a sensational and exasperating "mixup" in which even the judges' boat gave out conflicting decisions, the victory being given first to Cornell, although Syracuse came in first.

The hesitation over the decision was due to two facts: first, that some of those on the judges' boat were in doubt as to the identity of the leading crew as they passed the finish mark; second, that at the outset of the race Syracuse is declared to have passed out of her course in front of Columbia, and there was claim of a disqualifying foul against her. After a long delay the decision was reversed and declared in favor of Syracuse. The three races were rowed under ideal conditions over the beautiful and historic Hudson river course.

In the 'varsity race, the feature of the day, Cornell, never pressed after the first quarter mile had been covered, rowed across the finish a dozen lengths or more in front of the crew from Syracuse. Hotly struggling for third place, Georgetown and Columbia swept by the judges' boat almost together, Georgetown having the slightest of advantages. Back in the rack came Pennsylvania and last of all finished Wisconsin, whose chances had been favorably considered by the rowing experts. Cornell's time, 26:29 2-5. Cornell won the freshman race for eight-oared shells almost as easily, again having Syracuse as her nearest competitor. Columbia was third and Pennsylvania fourth. Cornell's time, 9:35 2-5.

In the four-oared 'varsity race Syracuse won, with Cornell second, Cornell and Syracuse thus almost evenly dividing the honors of the day, the former getting two firsts and a second and the latter one first and two seconds. Wisconsin furnished a big surprise by finishing fifth and last. Pennsylvania was third and Columbia fourth. Time of Syracuse, 10:15 2-5.

RUSSIAN TACTICS CHANGED.

Linevitch Adopts a Different Formation Than That of Kuropatkin.

Tokio, June 29.—The following special dispatch has been received from Moji, Japan:

"General Linevitch is following tactics different from those of General Kuropatkin and is presenting his army with a narrow front instead of with extended flanks. The reinforcements received from European Russia have been barely sufficient to fill the gap caused by the defeat at Mukden. An outbreak of dysentery at Harbin has made it necessary to send 1,000 patients to Tsitsihar, where extensive hospitals are being built.

"Spies from the army of General Linevitch are being arrested daily by the Japanese, those in custody now numbering between thirty and forty."
